EQUIPMENT RENTAL AGREEMENT

This agreement is made on November 3, 2026 between Northfield Tool Rental (the Owner) and Riverside Builders (the Renter).

Rental Period

The rental begins when the equipment leaves the Owner's yard and ends when it is returned and checked in. A day is counted for any part of a calendar day.

Rates and Deposit

The Renter will pay the daily rate shown on the rental ticket. A refundable deposit of $500.00 is due before the equipment leaves the yard and will be returned within seven days of check-in, less any charges for damage or cleaning.

Care of Equipment

The Renter will use the equipment only for its intended purpose, will not lend it to anyone else, and will keep it secure when it is not in use. Fuel and routine fluids are the Renter's responsibility.

Damage and Loss

The Renter is responsible for damage beyond normal wear and for loss or theft while the equipment is in the Renter's care. Repairs will be billed at the Owner's standard shop rate.

Insurance

The Renter will carry general liability insurance of at least $1,000,000 per occurrence and will name the Owner as an additional insured during the rental period.

Late Return

Equipment returned after the agreed date is charged at the daily rate for each extra day. If equipment is more than five days late the Owner may recover it at the Renter's expense.

Rental Period (continued)

Rates and Deposit (continued)

The Renter will pay the daily rate shown on the rental ticket. A refundable deposit of $500.00 is due before the equipment leaves the yard and will be returned within seven days of check-in, less any charges for damage or cleaning.

Care of Equipment (continued)

The Renter will use the equipment only for its intended purpose, will not lend it to anyone else, and will keep it secure when it is not in use. Fuel and routine fluids are the Renter's responsibility.
